About Lynn University

Lynn University is an independent, nonprofit university located in Boca Raton, Fla. The university is home to five academic colleges (business and management, arts and sciences, international communication, hospitality management and education), the Conservatory of Music, the Burton D. Morgan School of Aeronautics and the Institute for Achievement and Learning, and is dedicated to individualized learning, innovative approaches and an international focus. Lynn currently enrolls more than 2,500 students representing 40 U.S. states and 80 nations and competes in NCAA Division II.

About Our Lynn University Philharmonia Orchestra

The Lynn University Philharmonia Orchestra sets the standard for conservatory-level symphonic training. Now in its 17th season as a full symphony, the Philharmonia is an integral part of the education of the conservatory's graduate and undergraduate music students. It presents an annual series of high-quality concerts with a wide range of repertoire.

Jon Robertson, guest conductor

Maestro Jon Robertson, dean of the Lynn University Conservatory of Music, enjoys a distinguished career as a pianist, conductor and academician. A graduate of The Juilliard School of Music, he studied piano performance under Beveridge Webster, choral conducting with Abraham Kaplan at Juilliard, and orchestral conducting with Herbert Blomstedt of the Gewandhaus Orchestra (Germany). He continues to guest conduct and perform in concert as a member of the Cole-Robertson Trio.

Empire Brass

The Empire Brass enjoys an international reputation as North America's finest brass quintet. With music ranging from Bach and Handel to jazz and Broadway, the five musicians perform more than 100 concerts a year in cities across the globe. The first brass ensemble to win the prestigious Naumberg Chamber Music Award, Empire Brass served as faculty quintet-in-residence at Boston University for 13 years. For more than 20 years, the quintet has led a seminar at the Boston University Tanglewood Institute, where students from around the world come to study with the five musicians. Members of the Empire Brass include Rolf Smedvig, trumpet; Marc Reese, trumpet; Gregory Miller, horn; Alexei Doohovskoy, trombone; and Kenneth Amis, tuba. Reese, Miller and Amis serve on Lynn's faculty.
